

My right to privacy should be the first concern in this matter. Solicitation via the telephone and the buying/selling of my personal contact information is wrong and I should be able to take measures to protect my home from it particularly in light of the unethical practices at work and concerns over identity fraud. Leave New Jersey's Do Not Call List alone.